

CURRICULM VITAE

Rodney Troyer

Associate Professor | Kansas State University

Interior Architecture & Product Design

Education and Professional Background

1971	Bachelor of Architecture Degree, Kansas State University
1971-1972	Designer Wittenburg, Delony & Davidson Architects
1973	Established Shiloh Originals-Heirloom quality, custom furniture and products.
1974-1984	Established Rod Troyer Design – Custom furniture and passive solar homes.
1983-1984	Instructor – Furniture Design Interior Architecture, Kansas State University
1985	Master of Architecture Degree, University of Oregon
1986	Established the first product design studio as a 5 th year option in Interior Architecture program.
1987	Established Waucondah Land Sanctuary and Wildlife Refuge
1985-1995	Assistant Professor Interior Architecture, Kansas State University
1995-Present	Associate Professor, Tenured Interior Architecture & Product Design, Kansas State University
1996-Present	Dozens of student finalists invited to show in various furniture design competitions, including the International Woodworking Fair and Association of Woodworking & Furnishings Suppliers.
1997-Present	Director IAPD Workshop
1997	Wildlife Habitat Conservation Award, Kansas Department of Wildlife and Parks

Expertise

Furniture Design, Jewelry Design, Industrial Design, Structural Design, Land-Use Conservation